SPEAKER JONES ANNOUNCES NEW LEADERSHIP APPOINTMENTS

ANNAPOLIS, MD – House Speaker Adrienne A. Jones today announced changes to leadership positions for the 2024 legislative session.

Speaker Jones announced that Delegate David Moon (Montgomery County, District 20) will be the House Majority Leader. Stepping into the third most-powerful position in the Maryland House of Delegates, Delegate Moon will lead the debate for the Democratic Party on the House floor.

“David is a proven leader in the House and a natural fit for House Majority Leader,” said Speaker Jones. “He has led the debate on some of the most contentious issues we have faced and been a powerful consensus builder in the House.”

Delegate Moon has been a member of the House of Delegates since 2015.

Speaker Jones also named Delegate Marc Korman (Montgomery County, District 16) as the Chair of the Environment and Transportation Committee. Delegate Korman has been a member of the House of Delegates since 2015. “Marc has distinguished himself as Majority Leader and is a nationally recognized transportation policy expert,” said Speaker Jones. “He will bring his considerable talents and energy to the committee.”

Delegate Dana Stein (Baltimore County, District 11B) will be the Speaker’s nominee for Speaker Pro-Tem when the General Assembly returns in 2024. Delegate Stein was first appointed to the General Assembly from 2002 to 2003 and has served continuously since 2007. “Dana has been at the center of some of Maryland’s biggest climate and environmental policy victories,” said Speaker Jones. “I’m pleased he has agreed to take on a new role with an expanded portfolio as Speaker Pro-Tem.”
